

D.J. GRINDLEY

Electrical Services

COMMERCIAL SERVICES

We have a number of customers in the Commercial market, providing a general maintenance to installations, including replacement of lamps in shops, restaurants and bars to complete installations of lighting and power to office suites, some examples of the works we have completed in the last year are listed below.

Some of our clients:

- Vauxhall dealership
- Coton Orchards
- Blue

- Periodic Inspection and Testing certification of electrical installations
- Complete testing and NICEIC certification service for emergency lighting installations
- Feature lighting
- Emergency lighting
- Fire Alarm Systems
- Under floor busbar power system
- Single and three phase power installations
- Installation of electric heating
- Complete Design and installation of the electrical systems

Refurbishment of a Vauxhall dealership showroom in Royston, which included installing new functional and feature lighting, emergency lighting and power outlets through out, plus installation of a new supplies for a car wash.

Complete new installation of lighting, emergency lighting, power and Fire Alarm system to a Café in Cambridge. Installation of an under floor busbar power system servicing recessed floor boxes in a large office suite, and alteration to the existing lighting circuits to suite new office layout, including installation of feature lighting. (pictures of office suite with hanging down lights)

The complete design and electrical installation of a small light industrial unit for a local company which produces natural Apple juice (Coton Orchards), this included installation of lighting and emergency lighting, single and three phase power installations, installation of electric heating for the production and office areas and Installation of complete Fire Alarm system.

Complete Design and installation of the electrical installation for a new small office unit, which included installation of lighting throughout, perimeter trunking for the power and data installations, and installation of the fire alarm system. We also provide a complete testing and NICEIC certification service for emergency lighting installations and periodic testing, Periodic Inspection and Testing certification of electrical installations which may be required for insurance purposes.

Registered through:
NICEIC

